

Your Life, Your Photos, Your Story

A Day in the Life of a LONGHAULER

Share your Long COVID Story at the Museum of Vancouver!

"A Day in the Life of a Longhailer" is a photography project that captures the daily life of individuals living with Long COVID to enhance visibility, reduce stigma & advocate for improved support.

Whether you have a Long COVID diagnosis or are dealing with long-term symptoms following a COVID-19 infection, we invite you to take up to six photos from your everyday life which will be showcased at the Museum of Vancouver in the Fall of 2025.
